

Josemaría de Churtichaga occupies The Frank Gehry International Visiting Chair in Architectural Design, University of Toronto 2013-2014. He is Associate Dean at IE School of Architecture and Design since 2008 and until 2011 was also Director for Undergraduate Architecture Studies. He is also Director for the Design Thinking Launch Program at IMBA Master at IE Business School (ES). Prior to joining IE University, he was Design Studio Professor at ETSAM Madrid from 2003 to 2008.

In 1995 he co-founded CHURTICHAGA + QUADRA-SALCEDO architecture & resorces together with Cayetana de la Quadra-Salcedo. The work of the office is focused on the intimate relation between physical and unphysical aspects, trying to understand architecture as a sensorial interface, as an atmosphere between the man and the environment. www.chqs.net
